ATE LIKE WOLVES.

The Red Sea's Passengers Landed on Ellis Island.

They Were Almost Starved and Have Awful Tales to Tell.

$10,000 Bond Approved and More May Be Required.

The passengers from the English steamship Red Sea, which arrived from Bremen Thursday night, and have since been detained on board, were all landed at Ellis Island shortly after noon to-day.

They were transferred to the landing bureau by the steamer William Fletcher, and Capt. Miller told an "Evening World" reporter that the cheers given by the cholera detained passengers on Hoffman Island, which he had in charge last year, were whippers in comparison with the shouts of joy of the immigrants in leaving the Red Sea. And well they might be if the stories of cruelty practiced on the passengers, as told by themselves are true or half true.
Commissioner Senner himself seems to have had his sympathy exercised in their favor, for last night he sent a quantity of wholesome food on board.
How it was disposed of is best told in his own words:

"The poor, starved Russians gluttoned down with the ferocity of a wolf disposed of its quarry."

This morning the bond for $10,000 exacted by Dr. Senner and offered by C.
B. Richards & Co. indemnifying the immigration authorities for any charges that may be brought against the Red Sea was approved by the United States District Attorney, which was accepted by the Commissioner of Immigration.

Even before he had received the legal bond Dr. Senner began removing the passengers from the Red Sea. He said in explanation of his action:

"The reason why I am transferring these people to Ellis Island is because the ship is so dirty and the food so inadequate that it would be an unjust harshness to keep them any longer on board."

Perhaps Dr. Senner was stimulated in his action by the receipt of a telegram from Mr. Oscar Straus, ex-Minister to Turkey. It was dated from Istanbul and read as follows:

"I will furnish bonds, if required, for admission of Russian refugees from the Red Sea were landed at Ellis Island at 1 o'clock this morning. They received received there about 2. They were a healthy looking lot of people, and fully up to the average of the public."

Nearly all of them, the so-called "peters" included, have the address of friends in this country. One of the men remain in New York City, a third are bound for points in Pennsylvania, and the rest are returning to their homes.

A personal bond of $500 will be required of the immigrants who are without funds before they are permitted to leave the Red Sea. Dr. Senner said they will not be made public charges within a year.

Some as yet have no money, and how many will surely be returned. The men are the six stowaways and six contract laborers who were discovered on come over on the Red Sea. There are two others of the city paupers in the pen who appear to be without money or friends.

Besides these, Dr. Senner's physicians have already discovered twelve cases of favus, a cutaneous, contagious disease of the scalp. Adults afflicted with the disease will also be returned to their side.

Dr. Senner told an "Evening World" reporter that he had discovered enough evidence to show that the regular steamship lines had not refused to carry the Red Sea's passengers, but that the charter parties in Bremen of the Red Sea had offered sub-standard money on commission and had outbid the regular lines for the business.

Dr. Senner states that, while he could not make an example of this special case, he would endeavor to have new rules enacted that would cover the cases in the future.

The most serious charges are made against the quarantined officers and crew of the Red Sea by the passengers, and these complaints were justified.

An "Evening World" reporter, who was on the vessel this morning, found the accommodations to be frightful. On the forward deck are erected sheds, as good as those usually provided for freight, in which human beings were lodged. Between the decks were rows of bunks with flimsy blankets and pillows.

This is the story as told by Rehome Selkowitz, an intelligent Russian, who came over on the Red Sea, and who is now stopping with a friend at 112 East 14th street.

"I paid $100 for passage on the Red Sea and gave a passage on the Red Sea for a second class passenger on the Red Sea and a pen to sleep in and a bit of cracker and water to eat."

"Coffee? No! If it had been water to eat, I should have eaten it, as well as others who did not buy a ticket for a drink of water, we got a stinging blow from the officer in charge was informed that a woman had been confined in the whole voyage, and she promptly knocked the man who told him down."

"I never saw or tasted meat during the whole voyage," the reporter, who was put in double iron bonds and confined to his cabin for three days, said.

"We live in a hole," he said, "and the Red Sea's passengers, but that the charter parties in Bremen of the Red Sea had offered sub-standard money on
lines for the business."

"Evening World" reporter, and no father bought a ticket for my statement over to New York, paying less than $100 for it. She was the only one who arrived in Bremen on June 10.

and was told by the agents, Scharlach & Co., that for $750 she could get ship that would take her to New York in seven days. Her father sent on the money by telegraph. It was taken by Scharlach & Co. and she was sent by the Red Sea.

"But we will make trouble for them.
It is an outrage," she was also told that if she did not pay the money she would have to pay her fare to Rotterdam and take steam from there."

To-day the Hebrew Charity Organization sent down to Ellis Island a quantity of kosher food for the Hebrews.
It was the first meat they had tasted in three weeks.

Just how the other steamship companies view the matter of the Red Sea may be gained from the following interview.

A. E. Johnson, agent of the Thine-valia line, "Our only safeguard is to circulate as widely as possible 'The Evening World,' which tells of the hardships endured by these unfortunate on the Red Sea. Disinterested and inexperienced steamship owners should not be allowed to bring passengers here in this fashion. The Red Sea experiment is a dangerous one."

Mr. Schwab, of the North German Lloyd company—Law, they do not already exist, should be passed preventing the carrying of passengers in freight steamers. Their charters are wholly irresponsible and care nothing for the proper treatment of immigrants or the country's welfare. Having no reputation to lose, the sooner the Government and the immigrants recognize this the better it will be for both.

VERAGUA FUND TO BE RAISED.

J. M. Ceballos Plans the Co-ordination of American Republics.

VERAGUA FUND TO BE RAISED.

J. M. Ceballos Plans the Co-ordination of American Republics.

Apropos of the letter of President Palmer, of the World's Fair Commission, to George W. Childs, of Philadelphia, asking the latter's co-operation in raising a fund for the Duke of Veragua and his family, Mr. J. M. Ceballos said this morning that in his opinion the letter of Mr. Palmer was not only premature but impracticable.

When seen by an "Evening World" reporter this morning Mr. Ceballos had just received a letter from a friend of both the Duke and Mr. Ceballos in relation to the plan that the latter had for some time been considering.

Mr. Ceballos would give the name of the friend, but said that he was a prominent man and in hearty accord with the plan. He said that the plan both feel confident is practicable and cannot fail of success if thoroughly executed by a sufficient number of committees.

The gentleman referred to is now in Washington, but will sail for Spain July 29 in relation to the matter. He will confer with Mr. Ceballos, however, before sailing.

Mr. Ceballos said: "I think Mr.
Palmer's letter to Mr. Childs premature, and I do not think it suggests a feasible plan. The Duke and his family would be a great help to the Duke Palmer wants to raise with the Duke of Veragua, Gen. Horace Par-

"I say this," said Mr. Ceballos, "from an intimate acquaintance with him, and I am sure of his character, but not from the Duke's character." He said that the Duke's character was not a subject for discussion.

SIX KILLED, THIRTY INJURED.

A Railroad Train Runs Over a Precipice in Spain.

The Victims Include Members of the Best Basque Families.

MADRID, July 15.—A despatch from Bilbao, capital of the Province of Bis-caya, in Northern Spain, states that a terrible railroad accident occurred in that province last night.

A train, consisting of a locomotive and six carriages, while rounding a sharp curve in the mountains, ran off the track and went over a high precipice.

Six persons were killed, and thirty seriously injured. Many of the victims are members of the best Basque families. The provincial government authorities and a number of physicians have started for the scene of the accident.

Owing to the mountainous character of the country and the fact that the train fell into the valley, it is extremely difficult to reach the sufferers and relieve them.

The place where the train went over the precipice is at the head of a valley and for its picturesque appearance. It is about midway between the village of Auzola and Vergara.

GERMAN ARMY BILL PASSED.

Vote of 201 in Its Favor to 185 Against It.

BERLIN, July 15.—The Army bill was passed by the Reichstag this afternoon by a majority of sixteen.

The vote stood 201 in favor of the measure to 185 against it.

BETTER FEELING AT BANGKOK.

But Another French Gunboat Is at Meinam's Mouth.

BANGKOK, July 15.—The French gun-boat Forfait arrived at the bar at the mouth of the Meinam River to-day.

This is the fourth French warship to arrive, the Laun, Comete and Inconstant being already here.

When the Forfait arrived she saluted the British cruiser Pallas, which is lying off the bar, and her salute was returned by the British warship. A better feeling now prevails in the city.

The French captain, Thoreux, has arrived within two days' journey of Bangkok, a village on the Gulf of Siam, to the southeast of Bangkok. He is in command of a party that is conveying the rebellious Annamites, who were recently captured by the French at Khong, on the Mekong River.

INSURGENTS TO BE ATTACKED.

A Brazilian Minister Makes This Statement to a Deputy.

LONDON, July 15.—A telegram from Montevideo, via Paris, received here today, states that a member of the Brazilian Ministry, replying to a question asked in the Chamber of Deputies, regarding the situation in Rio Grande do Sul, said that Admiral Wandenkolk, the leader in the insurgent naval force now blockading the port of Rio Grande do Sul, with the steamer Jupiter, will shortly be attacked by the loyal fleet.

The despatch further states that the Chamber of Deputies has voted confidence in the Ministry. Public opinion in Rio de Janeiro is favorable to the Cabinet. The Government of the State of Rio Grande do Sul is confident that it will suppress the revolt.

CARNOT COOLLY RECEIVED.

But the Troops at the Longchamps Parade Were Warmly Cheered.

PARIS, July 15.—A parade of the troops was held on the parade course at Long-champs yesterday in celebration of the anniversary of the fall of the Bastille.

The soldiers were reviewed by President Carnot. An immense crowd was present, and the troops were heartily cheered.
President Carnot, however, was coolly received.

No disturbances were reported anywhere in the provinces in connection with the celebration of the day.

RACING AT SANDOWN PARK.

Mr. Blake's Delphos Wins the National Breeders' Produce Stakes.

LONDON, July 15.—The race for the National Breeders' Produce Stakes of 2,000 sovereigns was the event of today at the Sandown Park second Summer meeting.

It was won by C. J. Blake's chestnut colt Delphos. Daniel Cooper's bay or brown filly Glare was second, and Sir F. Johnstone's bay colt Matchbox third.

RUMOR OF TROUBLE IN EGYPT.

British Battleship Inflexible Ordered to Alexandria.

VALETTA, Malta, July 15.—The Brit-guns, has been ordered to proceed immediately from this port to Alexandria,

WANT EXCISE MONEY.

Alleged to Have Been Illegally Given to Inebriate's Home.

Ordered to Show Cause Why It Should Not Be Returned.

Since 1875 $627,000 Has Been Given to It.

It leaked out this afternoon that Supreme Court Justice Cullen, of Brooklyn, last night granted an order to Attorney T. Whyte, Gen. C. T. Christensen and others, compelling Mayor Boody, Comptroller Corwin, Treasurer Adams and the Inebriate's Home, at Fort Hamilton, to show cause why $627,000 should not be returned to the city.

This sum is 10 per cent. of the Excise money collected since 1875, and the petitioners claim that its award to the Inebriate's Home was unconstitutional.

Twenty-five thousand dollars has been paid to the Home since Jan. 1 this year, and $15,000 is now in the hands of Treasurer Adams awaiting such payment.

The petitioners also seek to restrain such payment.

The order is returnable July 24 in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn.

STABBED AT CONEY ISLAND.

Brooklyn Man Badly Cut by One of a Crowd.

CONEY ISLAND, July 15.—Shortly after midnight this morning William Jones, of 141 North Elliott place, Brooklyn, was stabbed in the side by James Buckley, of this place. Jones was taken to Police Headquarters, where he was wounded in the right arm. The wound was dressed by Surgeon Hill.
The doctor said the wound was not serious.

Jones says he was in a saloon until after 12 o'clock when he started for the depot. When in front of Stratton & Henderson's place on the Bowers road, he was struck by Buckley. The doctor said the wound was not serious.

Buckley was standing with four other men, Robert Perry, Charles Astor, John King and John McQuade, who began to jeer at Jones.

Jones answered them, and was told to leave them or they would do him up.
Before he had time to get away Buckley lunged at him and the others punched him.

Suddenly he felt the knife in his side and cried out "I am stabbed!" The five men ran away. Officer Tanney saw the men running and caught Buckley after a long run. He took him to the station, where he gave the names of his friends, who were sent out and arrested. Buckley and the others were taken to the station.

RESCUE OR LYINGH FEAR.

Henry Starr and "Kid" Wilson on the Way to Fort Smith.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 15.—Henry Starr and "Kid" Wilson, of the notorious Starr gang, and who were arrested in Denver, passed here last night in charge of a Sheriff en route to Fort Smith, where they will be tried for numerous depredations.

Extraordinary precautions will be taken to prevent the escape of the rescue of the prisoners when they pass through Indian Territory to-day.
An armed guard will be taken on the train at Springfield, where the prisoners will be transferred to the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad.

The prisoners were in an ugly mood and would not talk. They were chained together and also chained to one of the deputies. When a reporter persisted in questioning Starr he latter threw a glass of water in his face. The reporter then turned to Wilson, who spit in his face and declined to say a word.

NORTHROP BANK GOES DOWN.

Result of the Failure of the National Bank of Kansas City.

KANSAS CITY, July 15.—The Northrop Bank, of Kansas City, Kan., of which J. S. Chick, of the National Bank of Kansas City, which failed yesterday, was President, closed its doors this morning.

Bank Examiner G. W. Galbreath took charge of the suspended Kansas City National this morning.

There was a quiet run on the National Bank of Kansas City as soon as that bank opened for business this morning. In a statement made yesterday the condition of the bank was shown to be such that it was not possible to be able to stand a long run, if necessary.
